The State Planning Committee for Health Education in Ohio (SPCHEO) is proud to be hosting the Coordinated School Health Conference, now in its 20th year. This premier event provides high quality professional development and a forum for school faculty and staff, administrators, and community partners to assess, discuss and respond to health issues that impact a student's ability to achieve academically.

Building School Capacity to Achieve Health and Learning

The conference sessions include:

- The School Environment and Adolescent Well-Being: Beyond Academics
- Comprehensive System of Learning Supports for School Success
- Building School Capacity to Achieve Health and Learning Outcomes
- Creating a Climate for Learning
- Skills-based Instruction for Health Promotion
- Intervention Strategies for At-Risk Issues Impacting School Success
- Charting the Course: How Do You Evaluate School Health Success?
